Brazoswood Symphonic Band Advances to State

The Brazoswood Symphonic Band was recently named Region Finalist, and then Area Finalist in the TMEA Texas State Honor Band Competition. The bands were chosen from recordings of those who received First Divisions at the UIL Concert and Sight-Reading Contest in the spring. Brazoswood's program included, "The Gridiron Club March," by John Phillip Sousa; "Symphony in B-flat," by Paul Hindemith; and "Aegean Festival," by Andreas Makris.

Brazoswood's recording will now be in competition at the Texas State Honor Band Competition on July 25th, 2010. The adjudication will be held the Texas Bandmasters Association Convention in San Antonio.
