

Brazoswood Symphonic Band Earns Honors at UIL State Wind Ensemble

The Brazoswood High School Symphonic Band recently traveled to Austin to compete in the UIL State Wind Ensemble Contest. The Band received a Distinguished Performance Award. In addition, several students were chosen to receive a State UIL medal for outstanding performance. Those chosen for solo performance were: Riley Yung, Piccolo; Heather Wade, Flute; Hannah Wright, Eb Clarinet; Claire Schreiber, Bb Clarinet; Amanda Peres, Oboe; Paul Winniford, Bassoon; Julie Stepien, Alto Saxophone; Kelton Koch, Trombone; and Alex Shirsat, Percussion. There were also three sections: Clarinets, French Horns, and Trombones, named as outstanding performers, earning UIL medals for each student. Those chosen as a part of an outstanding section were: Claire Schrieber, Mai Iwamoto, Tabitha Wiley, Hannah Wright, Jamie Hodges, Katelyn Lipscomb, Kenna Schulte, and Karla Martinez, Clarinet; Scott Winters, Hannah Wadley, Hayley Orr, Rebecca Cerk, Chandler Miles, and Patrick Anderson, French Horn; Kelton Koch, Andrew Marshall, Brad Miller, Casey Fattig, and Atom Raiff, Trombone.